EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY POLICY STATEMENT

Rhinebeck Bank is committed to equal opportunity and non-discrimination in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions), sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, transgender status, age, national origin, marital status, citizenship, physical and mental disability, criminal record, genetic information, predisposition or carrier status, status with respect to receiving public assistance, domestic violence victim status, a disabled, special, recently separated, active duty wartime, campaign badge, Armed Forces service medal veteran, or any other characteristics protected under applicable law.

It is the policy of Rhinebeck Bank to take affirmative action to employ and to advance in employment all persons regardless of their status as individuals with disabilities or protected veterans, and to base all employment decisions only on valid job requirements. This policy shall apply to all employment actions, including but not limited to recruitment, hiring, upgrading, promotion, transfer, demotion, layoff, recall, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation and selection for training, including apprenticeship, at all levels of employment.

Employees and applicants shall not be subjected to harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion or discrimination because they have engaged in or may engage in any of the following activities: (1) Filing a complaint; (2) Assisting or participating in an investigation, compliance evaluation, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (Section 503) or any other Federal, State or local law requiring equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities; (3) Opposing any act or practice made unlawful by Section 503 or its implementing regulations in this part, or any other Federal, State or local law requiring equal opportunity for disabled persons; or (4) Exercising any other right protected by section 503 or its implementing regulations in this part. Further, Rhinebeck Bank will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant.

As President & CEO of Rhinebeck Bank, I am committed to the principles of Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity. In order to ensure dissemination and implementation of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action throughout all levels of the Rhinebeck Bank, I have selected Jeanine Borko as the Senior Vice President, Human Resources for Rhinebeck Bank. One of the Senior Vice President, Human Resources's duties will be to establish and maintain an internal audit and reporting system to allow for effective measurement of Rhinebeck Bank's programs.

In furtherance of Rhinebeck Bank's policy regarding Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity, Rhinebeck Bank has developed a written Affirmative Action Program which sets forth the policies, practices and procedures that Rhinebeck Bank is committed to in order to ensure that its policy of nondiscrimination and affirmative action for qualified individuals with disabilities and qualified protected veterans is accomplished. This Affirmative Action Program is available for inspection by any employee or applicant for employment upon request between normal business hours at the Human Resources department. Any questions should be directed to me, your supervisor, or Jeanine Borko, Senior Vice President, Human Resources.
